

Section	Subject	Page
Governance	Use of Council position titles APPROVED	1
		Date December 1 2009

Purpose To define criteria for use of the ACE Council position titles.

- Definitions
- ACE National Council A National Council, consisting of the positions of President, President-Elect, Treasurer, Secretary and the Region Presidents, shall be responsible for managing the affairs of the Association in accordance with the ACE By-laws.
  - ACE Council Position Titles The title provided to each member of ACE National Council. These titles consist of:
ACE President
ACE President Elect
ACE Treasurer
ACE Secretary
ACE (name of region) Region President
  - Use of ACE name The ACE National Council members have the right to identify themselves as the "XX of ACE" or as the "XX of the Association of Canadian Ergonomists", where "XX" represents the official designation for that Council position.

- Policy
- Context of use The ACE National Council position titles may only be used by the ACE National Council members when conducting ACE business, (i.e. representing the Association of Canadian Ergonomists), or as a part of a biography for purposes of personal background information.
  - Non-endorsement Use of the ACE National Council position titles does not constitute endorsement by ACE of an individual member's professional work, company or a product in any way, outside of their official representation of ACE on ACE business.
  - Decisions regarding use of the ACE Council position titles ACE National Council, or their designate, shall reserve the right to determine whether use of the ACE Council position title is contextually ambiguous and could be misinterpreted as endorsement or otherwise not in the best interests of ACE.

Related Procedures Policy on "Use of ACE and logo"

Exemptions

DATE POLICY APPROVED	REVIEW DATE	COMMITTEE RESPONSIBLE
		ACE National Council